

please DO NOT lift the band on phone solivating we work hard all day and we enjoy our quite time in the evenings with our family. It is hard to be polite to people you don't want to talk too! I have to be polite to people all day and when they call me in my home they become fair game for me to rude you would think they would a better way to make a living in stead of annoying the stuffing out of people thank you .

Rhonda Kirby